

March is Brain Injury Awareness Month

DES recognizes this silent epidemic that affects more than 1.7 million Americans.

The DES Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA) helps clients who have suffered brain injuries complete their education goals, find and maintain employment and live independently. RSA and its partners work year-round to educate the public about brain injuries and offer strategies to avoid them.

Wear purple on Wednesday, March 21 to show your support

www.azdes.gov